This amendment adds $1.3 million of health and Medicaid initiatives state special revenue (I-149) and $2.9 million of federal Medicaid matching funds to raise Medicaid eligibility for children in families with incomes up to 133% of the federal poverty level. This expansion was authorized by HB 577 passed in the regular session. HB 577 has been transmitted to the Governor.
